AMEND Senate Bill No. 2300

House Bill No. 2318*

by adding the following language at the end of the Section 20, as amended, which revised the language in § 68-120-101(b)(1):

(A) Notwithstanding this subdivision (b)(1), the standards established pursuant to subsection (a) with respect to one-family and two-family dwellings, do not apply in counties having the following populations, according to the 2000 federal census or any subsequent federal census, nor to municipalities located within such counties:

not less than	nor more than
17,800	17,875
39,800	39,875
11,025	11,100
16,000	16,100
17,475	17,575
28,350	28,450
6,700	6,800
53,500	53,600
11,300	11,368
39,900	40,000
16,800	16,900

unless the governing body of any such county or of a municipality located in any such county adopts a resolution of its governing body to apply such state-wide standards within the jurisdictional boundaries of their respective municipality or county, as appropriate; provided that, any action by the county legislative body concerning the implementation of this subdivision (b)(1)(A) shall be limited to the jurisdictional boundaries outside any municipality located within such county. The presiding officer of the governing body shall notify the state fire marshal of the approval of the resolution.

(B) The governing body of any such county or of a municipality located in any such county which has taken the action pursuant to subdivision(b)(1)(A) is authorized to reverse such action by adopting a resolution to exempt their municipality or county from the application of subsection (a) with respect to one-family and two-family dwellings within the jurisdictional boundaries of the municipality or county, as appropriate; provided that, any action by the county legislative body concerning its actions shall be limited to the jurisdictional boundaries outside any municipality located within such county. The presiding officer of the governing body shall notify the state fire marshal of the approval of the resolution.
